7/10/2018	Polling stations in the NW and SW Regions	Conduct of the Oct. 2018 Presidential Election in the NW/SW: “The presidential election of 7 October 2018 held within an extremely difficult security context, mostly within the North-West and South-West Regions beleaguered by secessionists who chose ELECAM as one of their prime targets ... The scenario [observed nationwide of a calm, disciplined vote] was different in the North-West and South-West regions, where the prevailing security situation prevented a large majority of electors eager to exercise their voting right from turning out. Nevertheless, certain electors, escorted by the military, turned out to vote. Isolated incidents were reported, here and there, during which assailants attempted to disrupt polling or burn down certain polling stations but were violently snuffed out by the security forces.”	Report by Cameroon’s Electoral Body (ELECAM) on the 2 October 2018 Presidential Elections. Early October 2018	NW and SW Regions	Officials of the ruling CPDM party disclosed that separatists abducted at least eight of the party’s officials from a Hotel in Bamenda town and attacked some of its campaign caravans. The party disclosed it was the only	https://www.voanews.com/africa/cameroons-ruling-party-campaigns-separatist-regions-under-tight-security

			one to campaign in the NW Region, stating the opposition parties had abandoned the people. Ruling party campaigns were conducted under military security cover.
September 2018	NW/SW Regions (Buea, Bamenda)	Ahead of the Presidential elections scheduled for 7 October 2018, several residents of the major towns in both regions (Buea/SW, Bamenda/NW) stormed the motor transport parks (from which buses depart both regions for the West and Littoral regions respectively). The mass demand for transport to leave both regions was on account of residents' fear of an upsurge of violence during the elections, as threatened by separatist actors. Regional officials sought to reassure the departing residents to stay.	https://www.journalducameroun.com/en/sw-governor-begs-fleeing-population-to-ignore-security-threats/ https://www.edennewspaper.net/ahead-of-2018-presidential-election-govt-stampedes-to-halt-mass-exodus-from-anglophone-regions/ https://www.voanews.com/africa/mass-exodus-underway-camerouns-english-speaking-regions
16 June 2018	Batibo, Momo Div., NWR	The President of Women's Wing of the CPDM Party for Batibo, Mrs Muzam Mary and her husband (aged 42 and 47 respectively) were killed Saturday, June 16, 2018 at about 4:30 pm, at the Atanga neighbourhood, on the road to Batibo at Ambo village. The couple was abducted, taken to a separate location, and killed – apparently in retaliation for their taking part in national day (20 May) activities in Batibo, and for supporting the ruling party.	https://allafrica.com/stories/201806190480.html (Cameroon Tribune)
